AUTHORITY: GOVERNMENT TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY: Marbury v. Madison (1803) | Judicial Review § 30-100. Declaration of legislative policy; construction § 38.2-500. Declaration of purpose. Transparency is the bedrock of government accountability. Our democracy is founded on the principles of openness and checks and balances. Ensuring that government actions are subject to scrutiny and oversight by the public is fundamental to preventing abuse of power and protecting the rights of citizens. Transparency allows for accountability at all levels of government, from federal agencies to local authorities.

RIGHT TO PETITION AND PARTICIPATE: Article 2, Article 7, and Article 10 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights
 The petitioner's right to petition the government for a redress of grievances, as guaranteed by the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, is a cornerstone of democracy. This right extends beyond the mere submission of a petition; it encompasses the expectation that the government will respond meaningfully and engage in dialogue with citizens. Transparency is an integral part of this process, allowing citizens to fully understand the government's response and the actions taken in their name.

42 U.S. Code § 1983 - Civil action for deprivation of rights The Supreme Court has established "an implied private right of action" under Title VI, leaving it "beyond dispute that private individuals may sue" to address allegations of intentional discrimination. Barnes v. Gorman, 536 U.S. 181, 185 (2002) (quoting Alexander v. Sandoval, 532 U.S. 275, 280 (2001)).

The International Court of Justice, the principal judicial organ of the United Nations, functions in accordance with the Statute of the International Court of Justice, which is annexed to the UN Charter, and forms an integral part of it. (See Chapter XIV, Article 92) Customary International Law <https://www.un.org/en/about-us/un-charter>

REFERENCES: SELF-DETERMINATION JUS COGENS- PARENTORY NORM INTERNATIONAL LAW and ERGA OMNES OBLIGATIONS
 Respect for the people's right to self-determination is one of the purposes of the United Nations. It is one of the principles of customary international law, and was codified in various international treaties, like the UN Charter, and the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights.

NOTICE TO THE AGENT AND THE PRINCIPAL
Urgent Requirement for Writ of Execution to Enforce Compliance on Writ of Mandamus and Immediate Investigation
for High Crimes and Misdemeanors against Humanity

WRIT OF EXECUTION: WRIT OF EXECUTION TO ENFORCE COMPLIANCE ON WRIT OF MANDAMUS

A. Mandamus Claim:

The Defendant had a clear and non-discretionary duty to respond to the petition for redress of grievances. This legal duty is well-established, and the failure to respond represents a violation of this duty. As such, a valid mandamus claim exists.

B. First Amendment Claim:

The Petitioner's First Amendment claim is based on the right to petition the government for a REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES, a fundamental constitutional right. The Petitioner has sufficiently alleged that this right was violated by the Defendant's failure to respond to the petition, thus constituting a valid claim.

These issues are not isolated but are indicative of broader systemic problems that erode trust in our institutions and undermine the principles of justice and equity, especially as we approach the critical 2024 Presidential Election. The cited case of Secretary Mayorkas and the outlined procedures and expectations under the National Labor Relations Board's Memoranda of Understanding demonstrate a recognized pattern of governmental obligations to lawful conduct and ethical standards that are not being met in my interactions with Virginia's judicial system. These systemic failures in government accountability as they relate to my case (No. 550CL2300541700) and broader systemic issues highlighted by recent high-profile government actions, including the impeachment proceedings against DHS Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas by the House of Representatives accuses him of a "willful and systemic refusal to comply with the law" as well as a "breach of public trust." This parallels the challenges in my case, where there has been a significant delay and apparent neglect of duty by the Chesapeake Circuit Court and The Eastern District Court of Virginia concerning the enforcement of a Writ of Mandamus issued in my favor.

The Honorable Admiral Linda Fagan
Commandant
U.S. Coast Guard
2703 Martin Luther King Jr. Avenue SE
Washington, D.C. 20593

[WASHINGTON, DC] – U.S. Senate Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations (PSI) Chairman Richard Blumenthal (D-CT) and Ranking Member Ron Johnson (R-WI) wrote to Coast Guard Commandant Admiral Linda Fagan seeking additional information regarding the Coast Guard Academy's mishandling of sexual assault investigations after the Subcommittee obtained new documents from the Coast Guard related to Operation Fouled Anchor.

Dear Admiral Fagan:

The Permanent Subcommittee on Investigations ("PSI" or the "Subcommittee") initiated an inquiry in September 2023 into the mishandling of sexual assault and sexual harassment cases at the United States Coast Guard Academy ("CGA"), as well as the United States Coast Guard's (the "Coast Guard") failure to notify Congress regarding the conclusion of Operation Fouled Anchor.[1] On February 1, 2024, the Subcommittee received the enclosed documents, which appear to present Coast Guard leadership with several options on whether to inform Congress and the public about Operation Fouled Anchor during the fall of 2018.[2] At that time, the Coast Guard did not brief Congress or the public about Operation Fouled Anchor.

These documents are troubling and raise new questions about the reasons for the Coast Guard's fall of 2018 decision not to brief Congress about Operation Fouled Anchor. According to the enclosed documents, the Coast Guard was concerned that, should Operation Fouled Anchor be made public, it would "risk the initiation of comprehensive Congressional investigations, hearings, and media interest" and that "[t]he rates of sexual assault reporting have not appreciably changed, calling into question impact of Coast Guard actions taken over the past decade to change CGA climate/etc." [3] Additionally, handwritten notes on one document, which according to the Coast Guard were made by then-Vice Commandant Admiral Charles Ray, state, "Problem is one of the past..." [4] Operation Fouled Anchor was only made public through press reports more than four years later, in the summer of 2023.[5]

Despite the Subcommittee informing the Coast Guard in a December 19, 2023 letter that all records requested by the Subcommittee should be produced without redactions, the Coast Guard continues to redact information, which prevents the Subcommittee from understanding the full scope of the Coast Guard's decisions.[6] The Subcommittee has also identified and requested missing email attachments from the few communications the Coast Guard has produced to date. One of those missing attachments appears to be an earlier draft of the Operation Fouled Anchor report that was shared among Coast Guard officials in March 2019—nearly ten months before the report was finalized.[7]

The key concerns and requests I've outlined touch on significant issues that could potentially involve state interests, particularly the impact on the administration of justice, public trust, and the integrity of state and federal interactions. Notice of the legal implications and the broader consequences of the actions described:

1. Explicit Role Explanation and Legal Joinder Validation: The involvement of a U.S. Attorney in a case that may overlap with state jurisdiction can raise questions about federal preemption, state sovereignty, and proper legal procedure, which are significant issues. If the case involves interpreting state laws or impacts state governance, it could attract the state attorney general's attention.
2. Comprehensive Conflict Assessment: If there's a potential conflict of interest due to overlapping duties of federal officials, this could affect the fairness and integrity of the legal process, aligning with state interests in maintaining a transparent and unbiased judicial system.
3. Ensured Reasonable Accommodations: Ensuring fair legal processes aligns with state interests in justice and equity, especially when it concerns the rights and participation of citizens within the state's legal system.
4. Consumer Protection and Fraud against Veterans: Issues like fraud, especially involving veterans' benefits, directly impact state residents and could mobilize state resources. These matters often involve both state and federal jurisdiction due to the dual nature of the potential crimes (e.g., fraud involving federal funds and state residents).

This DEMAND is grounded in the principles established by Marbury v. Madison, which emphasize the crucial role of judicial oversight in maintaining governmental transparency and accountability. The ongoing disregard for these principles threatens the foundational legal frameworks intended to protect the rights and liberties of our citizens, especially as we approach the pivotal 2024 Presidential Election AND IN LIGHT OF THE SUPER TUESDAY FAILURES.

Immediate Actions Required: WRIT OF QUO WARRANTO

Re: Freedom of Information Act Demand

It is imperative to resolve issues of credibility and intent behind the use of taxpayer dollars and resources in facilitating these actions, especially in relation to TRANSACTION # 23082500040 and the Court-Ordered Writ of Mandamus, by Clerk of the Courts, FIDUCIARIES, 22VAC30-100-15 mandated reporters, and Constitutional Officers, in demonstrating their unwavering commitment to the law and to their constituents they serve, particularly in the lead-up to the November 2024 presidential elections and the unanswered questions to the sworn Oaths and Virginia Employee Code of Ethics taken after Super Tuesday's Elections (See notarized affidavit dated March 4th, 2024) in certification of the Electoral Board.

RELIEF SOUGHT: WITHIN 3 DAYS OF THE DATE OF THIS WRIT OF QUO WARRANTO Adherence to THE PARENTORY NORM INTERNATIONAL LAWS and ERGA OMNES OBLIGATIONS: The case's proceedings must reflect the foundational principles of PARENTORY NORM INTERNATIONAL LAWS and ERGA OMNES OBLIGATIONS, honoring the inherent rights and dignity afforded to every individual, and ensuring equitable treatment under GOD'S KINDOM.

LEGAL / JUDICIAL REDRESS SYSTEMS

1. Explicit Role Explanation: Please elucidate the specific legal grounds and procedural justification for Ms. Jessica D. Aber's active role in my case, particularly given her significant federal responsibilities and potential overlapping interests.
2. Legal Joinder Validation: I respectfully request concrete proof or rationale supporting Ms. Aber's involvement, ensuring adherence to judicial standards, and avoiding any prejudicial treatment.
3. Comprehensive Conflict Assessment: The overlap between Ms. Aber's duties and the actions by the Treasury and DHS has introduced potential bias. An in-depth review and transparent communication regarding conflict-of-interest evaluations and resolutions are crucial.
4. Ensured Reasonable Accommodations: Given these complexities, I advocate for adjustments ensuring my full and fair participation in the legal process. This includes clear, accessible communication and equitable scheduling, among others deemed necessary for procedural fairness.

Referring the matter to relevant disciplinary authorities or oversight bodies for further investigation and action, as warranted by the severity of the offense in light of all known revelations, and due to the lack of accountability thus far, it is imperative and demanded that any future attempts at the representation of the Coast Guard by the DOJ and the Eastern District Court of Virginia be dismissed with prejudice or Referring the matter to a competent international tribunal for violations of Article 27. Violation of Treaty Obligations, to which the Petitioner will decide the competent international tribunal to which the case to be adjudicated and investigated.

Systemic Legal and Ethical Rectification: A rigorous, transparent investigation into the systemic failings identified, ensuring all involved parties and entities are held to account and that the rule of law is upheld, directly impacting the broader veteran and service member community.

Comprehensive CGIS and Institutional Accountability: A detailed examination and overhaul of the CGIS and related institutions to address failures in preventing, investigating, and resolving incidents of misconduct. Such actions directly influence the trust and safety of our veterans, service members, and their families.

Enhanced Protections for Veterans and Service Members: Recognize and actively address the far-reaching consequences of institutional failures on the safety, well-being, and access to justice for veterans, service members, and their families, ensuring initiatives like the EEOC, MSPB, Safe-to-Report Act and Servicemembers and Veterans Initiatives by the DHS, DOJ, and the employment and legal redress systems are in fact credible, and as advertised and marketed to consumers, considering all known above.

National Commitment to Military Families: Advocate for systemic reforms and enact measures that reflect a national commitment to the welfare and justice for all military families, honoring their sacrifices by ensuring a responsive, fair, and equitable legal system.

Prompt Federal and State-Level Independent Investigation: An exhaustive and impartial investigation into the reported unethical practices and systemic injustices must be initiated immediately. This investigation should be spearheaded by a body independent of the implicated entities to ensure objectivity and credibility, aiming to unearth the truth and instigate necessary legal and ethical rectification.

Case No. 550CL2300541700

NOTICE TO THE AGENT AND THE PRINCIPAL
Urgent Requirement for Writ of Execution to Enforce Compliance on Writ of Mandamus and Immediate Investigation
for High Crimes and Misdemeanors against Humanity

Immediate Support and Advocacy for Affected Veterans: Establish and enact robust support systems for the veterans and service members adversely impacted by these failures. These systems must provide holistic assistance, encompassing legal, financial, and psychological support to ensure comprehensive redress and rehabilitation.

1. Motion to Compel Compliance

- A. Purpose: This motion asks the court to enforce its previous order (in this case, the Writ of Mandamus), compelling the defendant or respondent to perform the mandated action.
- B. Basis: Typically used when a party has not complied with a specific court order, and there's a need to prompt action.
- C. Outcome: If granted, the court will issue an order that explicitly requires the defendant to comply by a set deadline or face penalties such as fines or other sanctions.

2. Motion for Contempt

- A. Purpose: To charge the non-compliant party with contempt of court for failing to obey the court's orders. This can be civil (to compel action) or criminal (to punish non-compliance).
- B. Process: The motion must outline the ways in which the opposing party has failed to comply with the court order, showing willful disobedience.
- C. Outcome: Successful motions can lead to penalties including fines, jail time (for criminal contempt), or other measures designed to enforce compliance.

3. Motion for Sanctions

- A. Purpose: Seeks to penalize the other party for non-compliance or for failing to act in good faith.
- B. Legal Framework: Under rules like Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 or equivalent state rules, which penalize parties for misconduct including failure to follow court orders.
- C. Outcome: Can result in various penalties against the non-compliant party, including fines or an order to pay the moving party's attorney fees.

4. Motion for Show Cause

- A. Purpose: Requests the court to order the non-compliant party to appear and explain why they have not followed the court's order.
- B. Process: The court issues a show cause order, and the non-compliant party must appear in court to provide a reason for their non-compliance.
- C. Outcome: Depending on the explanation and the court's decision, further actions may be prescribed to ensure compliance.

5. Motion to Enforce Settlement

- A. Purpose: Used if the Writ of Mandamus was part of a settlement agreement that the other party is now violating.
- B. Basis: Enforces the terms of a settlement legally bound by court order or agreement.
- C. Outcome: The court can enforce the settlement terms, adjusting the obligations or imposing penalties for non-compliance.

6. Motion for Judicial Supervision

- A. Purpose: Requests ongoing judicial oversight to ensure that the terms of the court order are implemented properly over time.
- B. Use Case: Useful in complex cases where compliance requires continuous actions or oversight.
- C. Outcome: Establishes a framework for regular reporting to the court and potential judicial intervention if compliance fails.

7. Emergency Motion for Enforcement

- A. Purpose: Used in urgent situations where immediate action is required to prevent irreparable harm or to address issues that require swift resolution.
- B. Process: This motion prioritizes the court's attention and expedites its handling.
- C. Outcome: Aimed at getting an immediate court order to enforce compliance or address urgent matters.

Critical Points of Action and Review:

§ 63.2-1603. Protection of adults; definitions.

1. Financial Exploitation of Vulnerable Adults (Virginia Code § 18.2-178.1): This statute likely defines and penalizes the financial exploitation of vulnerable adults, which can include disabled veterans. The law typically makes it illegal for anyone who knows or should know that a person is a vulnerable adult to exploit them financially.
2. Adult Protective Services (Virginia Code § 63.2-1606): This code outlines the responsibilities of Adult Protective Services, including the protection of aged or incapacitated adults from abuse, neglect, or exploitation. Disabled veterans falling into these categories would be protected under this statute.
3. Abuse and Neglect of Vulnerable Adults (Virginia Code § 18.2-369): This statute defines the abuse and neglect of vulnerable adults, setting forth penalties for violations. It aims to protect individuals who cannot protect themselves due to physical or mental impairments.
- 1) Writ of Execution for Compliance Enforcement: Immediate action is required under Virginia Code §§ 8.01-466 et seq. to enforce the Writ of Mandamus, ensuring defendant compliance with judicial orders. This is essential to uphold the rule of law and the principles enshrined in our legal system.
- 2) Surety Bond Compliance and Verification: In accordance with Virginia Code § 38.2-2200, there is an urgent need to validate surety bond adherence, safeguarding my financial and legal rights. This action is pivotal to maintaining trust in the judicial process and ensuring accountability.
- 3) Rectification by Chesapeake Clerk's Office: Prompt correction of procedural missteps is needed, as mandated by Virginia Code §§ 8.01-296 and 8.01-327, to restore procedural integrity and ensure the lawful service of documents and judicial notifications.
- 4) Judicial Review Concerning DOJ Misconduct: Allegations against DOJ personnel, notably Mr. Daniel Shean, highlight a severe breach of trust. A thorough and transparent judicial review is indispensable to address potential abuses of power and restore public confidence in our legal institutions.
- 5) Adherence to THE PARENTORY NORM INTERNATIONAL LAWS and ERGA OMNES OBLIGATIONS: The case's proceedings must reflect the foundational principles of PARENTORY NORM INTERNATIONAL LAWS and ERGA OMNES OBLIGATIONS, honoring the inherent rights and dignity afforded to every individual, and ensuring equitable treatment under GOD'S KINDOM.
- 6) Compliance with Treaties, Virginia Charters, and International Agreements: It is imperative that actions taken align with established treaties, the principles set forth in Virginia charters, and relevant international agreements, particularly those addressing "Breach of the Peace" and ensuring "Ubi jus ibi remedium" – where there is a right, there must be a remedy.

The neglect and disregard for these critical legal standards and ethical obligations represent a direct violation of the principles intended to safeguard our SOVEREIGN NATION AND SOCIETY and ensure justice for its members, particularly those who have served our nation.

I demand an exhaustive and transparent response outlining the measures the Virginia Beach Circuit Court and the Virginia General Assembly will implement to rectify these pressing issues, ensuring compliance with all relevant legal standards and restoring the principles of justice and equity.

Please confirm receipt of this communication and inform me of the measures you will take to address this grave issue. Your prompt and decisive response is imperative to restoring public confidence in our judicial system.

Thank you for your immediate attention to this pressing matter. Notarized Affidavits have been sent to the Judicial Inquiry and Review Commission as seen here: Without Prejudice.
